

NOTICE OF INFORMATION PRACTICES

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

We (including our affiliates listed at the end of this notice) are required by law to protect the privacy of your health information. We are also required to send you this notice, which explains how we may use information about you and when we can give out or "disclose" that information to others. You also have rights regarding your health information that are described in this notice. The terms "information" or "health information" in this notice include any personal information that is created or received by a health care provider or health plan that relates to your physical or mental health or condition, the provision of health care to you, or the payment for such health care.

We have the right to change our privacy practices. If we do, we will provide the revised notice to you within 60 days by direct mail or post it on our Web sites listed at the bottom of this page.

How We Use or Disclose Information

We must use and disclose your health information to provide information:

- To you or someone who has the legal right to act for you (your personal representative);
- To the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services, if necessary, to make sure your privacy is protected; and
- Where required by law.

We have the right to use and disclose health information to pay for your health care and operate our business. For example, we may use your health information:

- For Payment of premiums due us and to process claims for health care services you receive.
- For Treatment. We may disclose health information to your physicians or hospitals to help them provide medical care to you.
- For Health Care Operations. We may use or disclose health information as necessary to operate and manage our business and to help manage your health care coverage. For example, we might conduct or arrange for medical review, legal services, and auditing functions, including fraud and abuse detection or compliance programs.
- To Provide Information on Health Related Programs or Products such as alternative medical treatments and programs or about health related products and services.
- To Plan Sponsors. If your coverage is through an employer group health plan, we may share summary health information and enrollment and disenrollment information with the plan sponsor. In addition, we may share other health information with the plan sponsor for plan administration if the plan sponsor agrees to special restriction on its use and disclosure of the information.

- For Appointment Reminders. We may use health information to contact you for appointment reminders with providers who provide medical care to you.

We may use or disclose your health information for the following purposes under limited circumstances:

- To Persons Involved With Your Care. We may use or disclose your health information to a person involved in your care, such as a family member, when you are incapacitated or in an emergency, or when permitted by law.
- For Public Health Activities such as reporting disease outbreaks.
- For Reporting Victims of Abuse, Neglect, or Domestic Violence to government authorities, including a social service or protective service agency.
- For Health Oversight Activities such as governmental audits and fraud and abuse investigations.
- For Judicial or Administrative Proceedings such as in response to a court order, search warrant or subpoena.
- For Law Enforcement Purposes such as providing limited information to locate a missing person.
- To Avoid a Serious Threat to Health or Safety by, for example, disclosing information to public health agencies.

- For Specialized Government Functions such as military and veteran activities, national security and intelligence activities, and the protective services for the President and others.
- For Workers Compensation including disclosures required by state workers compensation laws of job-related injuries.
- For Research Purposes such as research related to the prevention of disease or disability, if the research study meets all privacy law requirements.
- To Provide Information Regarding Decedents. We may disclose information to a coroner or medical examiner to identify a deceased person, determine a cause of death, or as authorized by law. We may also disclose information to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.
- For Organ Procurement Purposes. We may use or disclose information for procurement, banking, or transplantation of organs, eyes, or tissue.

If none of the above reasons apply, then we must get your written authorization to use or disclose your health information. If a use or disclosure of health information is prohibited or materially limited by other applicable law, it is our intent to meet the requirements of the more stringent law. In some states, your authorization may also be required for disclosure of your health information. In many states, your authorization may be required in order for us to disclose your highly confidential health information. Once you give us authorization to release your health information, we cannot guarantee that the person to whom the information is provided will not disclose the information. You may take back or "revoke" your written authorization, except if we have already acted based on your authorization. To revoke an authorization, contact the phone number listed on your ID card.

What Are Your Rights

The following are your rights with respect to your health information.

- You have the right to ask to restrict uses or disclosures of your information for treatment, payment, or health care operations. You also have the right to ask to restrict disclosures to family members or to others who are involved in your health care or payment for your health care. We may also have policies on dependent access that may authorize certain restrictions. Please note that while we will try to honor your request and will permit requests consistent with its policies, we are not required to agree to any restriction.
- You have the right to ask to receive confidential communications of information in a different manner or at a different place (for example, by sending information to a P.O. Box instead of your home address).
- You have the right to see and obtain a copy of health information that may be used to make decisions about you such as claims and case or medical management records. You also may receive a summary of this health information. You must make a written request to inspect and copy your health information. In certain limited circumstances, we may deny your request to inspect and copy your health information.
- You have the right to ask to amend information we maintain about you if you believe the health information about you is wrong or incomplete. We will notify you within 30 days if we deny your request and provide a reason for our decision. If we deny your request, you may have a statement of your disagreement added to your health information. We will notify you in writing of any amendments we make at your request. We will provide updates to all parties that have received information from us within the past two years (seven years for support organizations).
- You have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your information made by us during the six years prior to your request. This accounting will not include disclosures of information: (i) made prior to April 14, 2003; (ii) for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes; (iii) to you or pursuant to your authorization; and (iv) to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials; and (v) other disclosures that federal law does not require us to provide an accounting.
- You have the right to a paper copy of this notice. You may ask for a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice upon request. In addition, you may obtain a copy of this notice at our Web sites, www.eAMS.com or www.goldenrule.com.

Exercising Your Rights

- Contacting your Health Plan. If you have any questions about this notice or want to exercise any of your rights, please call the phone number on your ID card.
- Filing a Complaint. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us at the following address: Golden Rule Insurance Company, Privacy Officer, 7440 Woodland Drive, Indianapolis, IN 46278-1719

You may also notify the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services of your complaint. We will not take any action against you for filing a complaint.

Fair Credit Reporting Act Notice

In some cases, we may ask a consumer-reporting agency to compile a consumer report, including potentially an investigative consumer report, about you. If we request an investigative consumer report, we will notify you promptly with the name and address of the agency that will furnish the report. You may request in writing to be interviewed as part of the investigation. The agency may retain a copy of the report. The agency may disclose it to other persons as allowed by the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act.

We may disclose information solely about our transactions or experiences with you to our affiliates.

Medical Information Bureau

In conjunction with our membership in the Medical Information Bureau (MIB), we or our reinsurers may make a report of your personal information to MIB. MIB is a nonprofit organization of life and health insurance companies that operates an information exchange on behalf of its members.

If you submit an application or claim for benefits to another MIB member company for life or health insurance coverage, the MIB, upon request, will supply such company with information regarding you that it has in its file.

If you question the accuracy of information in the MIB's file, you may seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. Contact MIB at: MIB, Inc., P.O. Box 105, Essex Station, Boston, MA 02112, (866) 692-6901, www.mib.com or (TTY) (866) 346-3642.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION PRIVACY NOTICE

We (including our affiliates listed at the end of this notice) are committed to maintaining the confidentiality of your personal financial information. For the purposes of this notice, "personal financial information" means information, other than health information, about an insured or an applicant for health care coverage that identifies the individual, is not generally publicly available and is collected from the individual or is obtained in connection with providing health care coverage to the individual.

We collect personal financial information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms such as name, address, age and social security number; and
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates or others, such as premium payment history.

We do not disclose personal financial information about our insureds or former insureds to any third party, except as required or permitted by law.

We restrict access to personal financial information about you to employees, affiliates, and service providers who are involved in administering your health care coverage or providing services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your personal financial information.

We may disclose personal financial information to financial institutions which perform services for us. These services may include marketing our products or services or joint marketing of financial products or services.

The Notice of Information Practices, effective May 2008, is provided on behalf of American Medical Security Life Insurance Company; Golden Rule Insurance Company; PacifiCare Life and Health Insurance Company; PacifiCare Life Assurance Company; United HealthCare Insurance Company; All Savers Insurance Company; and United HealthCare Services, Inc.

To obtain an authorization to release your personal information to another party, please go to the appropriate Web site listed at the bottom of the page.
